

SUMMER PLANNING GUIDE

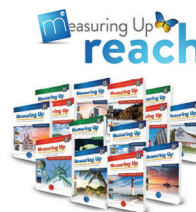

These questions may be used for planning alternative programs such as summer learning [or summer instruction] and before- and after-school programs.

Determine the Budget	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> What are the available funding sources? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How much funding is available?
Set the Duration	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How many days, weeks? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How many hours each day?
Identify Target Groups of Students	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Which students will be served?
Identify Staffing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How many staff members are needed? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Are specialists needed?
Plan Academic and Enrichment Activities	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Which subject areas will be the focus? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How much time will be spent on each activity? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How can we individualize instruction for each student? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How will students be assessed? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> What curriculum resources will be used? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> What technology will be incorporated? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> What enrichment activities will be included?
Family Outreach	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How can we enlist home and/or family involvement? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> What resources can we provide to boost involvement?
Measuring Success	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> How will we measure success?

For more information, visit the RAND Summer Learning Series at https://www.rand.org/content/dam/rand/pubs/research_reports/RR300/RR366/RAND_RR366.pdf

DIAGNOSE — INSTRUCT — PRACTICE

Peoples Education Inc. DBA
Mastery Education